

OCELOT CURRICULUM CONTEST

Laguna Atascosa National Wildlife Refuge

All Brownsville Schools (Public and Private) are Eligible.

Submit an entry for your school, and you may win a LIVE ocelot assembly program on April 29, 2011!

It's easy. Simply:

1. Tell us specifically how your school will incorporate ocelot conservation into the curriculum of all grades for the 2010-2011 academic year.
2. Submit your entry by mail or fax by March 11, 2011 to Ocelot Curriculum Contest, Laguna Atascosa National Wildlife Refuge, 22817 Ocelot Road, Los Fresnos, TX 78559. Or Fax to 956-748-3036.
3. Plan and implement your curriculum. A judging panel will choose the most comprehensive curricula on March 14, 2011 to determine which schools will receive a LIVE ocelot assembly program. You will be notified by March 31 if your school has been selected.

Ocelot visiting students at their school.

Your students could win a chance to see a live ocelot and learn about this endangered south Texas wildcat from U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service Rangers.

Note to teachers: To assist you in planning your curriculum, background information on ocelots is posted on the following website – www.friendsofsouthtexasrefuges.org

We would like to invite you, your students and their families to attend our annual Ocelot Festival on May 1, 2011 at Dean Porter Park, Brownsville, TX.
